JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE.

Great Furniture Bargains.

REDUCTIONS is the cry all over this big establishment during this month, and the nearer we are getting to February the greater becomes the price-cutting. We have been fortunate enough to dispose of vast quantities of goods so far, but we are a long way from effecting as thorough a clearance as we have in mind, so less regard than ever will be paid to cost marks this coming week. This is a chance that no householder can afford to neglect, for never was there such a convocation of unusual values be-

The details of the marriage in Mexico, January 15, of Miss Charlotte Clayton and Baron Moncheur, the Belgian ministei, just received here, are very interesting to friends of both the bride and groom. The ceremony took place at noon in the beautiful chapel in the Mier estate at Tacubaya, Rev. Father Dunne performing the ceremony. The bride entered the chapel with her father, Ambassador Clayton, and was superbly dressed in white satin, trimmed with lace chiffon and orange blossoms. During the signing of the register a male choir with orchestral accompaniment sang Marchett's "Ave Maria." The entire diplomatic corps and prominent American residents were present at the ceremony, which was followed by a wedding breakfast at HAMMOND. In loving remembrance of our daugheter, ANNIE V. HAMMOND, who died four years ago today, January 25, 1898.

Four years ago this very day Our darling girl was laid away.

Out in the graveyard where she sleeps.

I know the Lord her soul doth keep. Home is sad, O God; how dreary; Lonesome, lonesome, every spot. I listen for her voice till weary, Weary, for I hear her not. BY HER FATHER AND MOTHER.

HERNDON. In sad memory of husband and father, JAMES HARVEY HERNDON, who died in Jersey City four years ago yesterday, January, 24, 1898. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.
WIFE AND SON.

MILLER. In loving remembrance of our dear mother, AURILLA V. MILLER, who died two years ago today, January 25, 1900.

You are not forgotten, mother, dear, Nor never shall you be;

As long as life and memory last We will always think of thee. BY HER SON AND DAUGHTER, FRED B. AND MINNIE B. MILLER

Gone, but not forgotten.

BY HER DAUGHTER, HATTIE PERKINS.

HITE. In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, W. W. WHITE, who entered into rest three years ago today, January 25, 1890.

We will meet again
In that besutiful land of reet,
Where there are love, peace, joy
And happiness throughout eternity.
